Mardi Gras Festivities Inaugurated in Greeting to Visiting Veiled Prophets.

DETROIT, Mich., June 19 .- Detroit became an enchanted city today. Groesque costumes filled its streets. Varied noises, from tinkles to crashes, sounded unfamiliar notes in busy business districts. These spectacles, how ever, were only the advance guard of a series of day and night demonstrations which are expected to make history fo the Michigan metropolis. Detroit is to be mardi gras city until Wednesday night. It is host for the convention of the supreme council of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets.

Shadukiam Grotto, No. 49, of Detroit pent weeks preparing for the coming of the mystic ones. Many entertain-ments have been arranged, but the vital traction—"the night of revels aimed leading consideration. It be staged tomorrow night as the cli-max of eccentric gayety. It is to be a feast of color, noise, light and revelry, say the committeemen, who have been praying for seasonable weather.

Fireworks to Be a Feature.

The whole convention revolves about this singular night demonstration. It about 5,000 delegates, grotesquely costumed, are to participate. While the prophets are surging through the prinprophets are surging through the principal streets of the city fireworks are to be touched off from the roofs of sky-scrapers in the business district. One pyrotechnic feature is to be a reproduction of Niagara falls. Batteries of searchlights, flashing through blizzards of confetti, will help turn the line of march into a land of seeming fire. The parade is to dishand at Grand Circus Park, in the heart of the city What may happen after that—well, no lodge official has had courage to forecast. cast. Wednesday afternoon another parade

Wednesday afternoon another parade is to take place. This spectacle is to be of a serious nature, however. Floats reflecting the industrial, financial and artistic development of Detroit will proceed along Woodward avenue. Prizes will be awarded to the most attractive displays. The parade will be of four groups—industrial, floral, allegorical and grotesque. A suggestion bureau was opened in Detroit to enable interested persons to obtain ideas for their displays.

EIGHTY WALKERS ON HIKE OVER COUNTRY HIGHWAYS

Seven Miles of Territory, Embracing Beautiful Scenery, Traversed by the Party.

Eighty walkers were in the wander lust party yesterday afternoon, when G. A. Gambs led the way over seven or more miles of beautiful country roads and through primeval forests to the Potomac river and return. Chesterbrook station the old county road was followed to Langley, crossing Pimmitt run over stones and rocks on the way and stopping a short while at the home of G. B. Cockrell for water and rest. At the Leesburg pike nearly a third of the party accepted the leader's invitation to return via Langley and to the car line by a shorter route. W. Palmer Hall being assigned to W. Palmer Hall being assigned to show them the way. The larger crowd, however, proceeded as originally planned, along an old lane going straight north by Joseph M. Leiter's property, crossing this over roads and good trails to the old soapstone quarry, which extends to the river. From the quarry a westerly course was taken along the river bank to a fine spring, and a short distance beyond to the mouth of Turkey run.

Crowd Carefully Handled.

The river was very high and this nade the crossing at the mouth of Turkey run more difficult, but not even a scratch was evident, owing to careful handling of the crowd. This little waterway was followed almost to Langley, crossing and recrossing on stones and by means of small logs. From the west end of Langley pike roads were followed to McLean. Several in the party found additions for their botanical studies, and the wild flowers, especially roses and daisies, proved a pleasing sight along the way.

The walk for Wednesday evening is to start from Chain bridge station at 7:45 o'clock. Saturday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock Miss Nellie Brosnan will have charge of a walk from 36th and M streets to Chain bridge, where it is proposed to have a social hour or two in honor of some of the leaders who are to leave soon for their vacation.

Next Sunday W. B. Handy and Harry Odell will lead, starting at 2:15 o'clock from the south end of Aqueduct bridge, thence to Cherrydale and farther for those desiring. Was Chief of the Supplementary General Staff of German clinched his title as American speedway champion when he defeated Ralph de Palma in two straight heats-one of fifty miles and the other of twentyfour miles-at Speedway Park yester-

Incidentally, Resta broke the fiftymile speedway record, doing the disninety-four miles an hour, as against Christaen's time at Indianapolis hast year, when he drove an Excelsion in 33.35.32, at eighty-seven miles-per De Palma's time was 32.18, or ninety-three miles an hour. These, however, proved unfounded, but in December of that year he retired from the post. His failing health, it was said, prevented his return to the front. He was succeeded by the present head of the general staff, Gen. von Falkenhayn. In the January following he was appointed chief of the supplementary general staff. De Palma again had spark plug trou ole, but so did Resta, who was first in the pit. Then De Palma gained a whole lap, only to lose it when he had to go to the pit. Then Resta not only took the lead, but won the race.

The twenty-four-mile race was also Resta's. The Mercedes pilot had the lead only the first lap. Once he tried to pass Resta in the ninth lap, but to no purpose.

The fastest lap of the day was in the twenty-first lap of the fifty-mile, when Resta turned the trip in 1.06 3-5, which is at the rate of 108.1 miles per hour.

While Resta won the twenty-four mile heat in 13.42 3-5, De Palma was only 3 1-5 seconds behind him, his time being 13.45 4-5, at the rate of 104 miles an hour. Thirty thousand spectators saw the

Last night, when an open Glen Echo car stopped at the pit in Geogetown to change from the underground to the overhead trolley, a gay youth on the neanuts was extremely needful in his pursuit of happiness. He called a small and very youthful man of business, got his bag of peanuts and handed out a dime for payment. The aforesaid young man of business did not have a nickel, so, telling his patron not to fear, he ran to the back of the car to get some change.

But the pitman had in the meantime finished his work, and the car started. The young man on the front seat waved frantically to the boy at the rear, and then called to him to throw another bag of the great American delicacy. It was too late, however, for the unfeeling motorman put on full speed, and in a few seconds the car turned a corner and the boy was out of sight.
